

Timespan ancestor research enquiry form

Please answer as many of the questions on this form and it will help us assess your enquiry and establish the appropriate service and charges involved. When you have finished please return form to our reception desk. Thank you.

Name:

Address:

Tel:

Email:

How long are you staying in the area?

Less than 4 hours

1 day

2-5 days

Over a week

Checklist of research experience

I have previously used the following resources in my Scottish family history research. (Please tick)

Scotlandspeople.gov.uk

Ancestry.com

Scottish Census Returns 1841-1911

Scottish Valuation Rolls 1855-1989

Graveyard transcriptions and lair records

Ordnance Survey maps (scale 6 inches = 1 mile)

Highland Archive Centre, Inverness

Scottish church records on microfilm

Scottish testaments and wills

Registry of Deeds

Information about your ancestor

1. Name of ancestor from Scotland:

Surname:

Christian:

2. Date of birth (or christening):

3. Place (parish) of birth:

4. Parents' names:

5. Date and place of marriage of ancestor:

6. Christian names of wife/husband (and maiden name of wife)

7. Christian names and dates and places of birth of children:

8. Date and place of death:
9. Trade or profession of ancestor:
10. Parishes and places associated with ancestor, as well as parents:
11. Christian names of brothers and sisters of ancestor:

12. Any other information that might be of use:

What would you like to find out?

Some useful records in our archive

- Graveyard transcriptions (Loth and Kildonan parishes)
- Where We Live: house and croft occupation records
- Sutherland Estate Papers: rentals, letters, removal lists etc
- Selection of maps c. 1740s to present
- Census and valuation rolls (Loth and Kildonan parishes)
- Place name survey of the townships of Kildonan (with locations)
- Digital photographic record

Kildonan Clearances Trail App

www.timespan.org.uk/visit/clearance-trail-app/

Please consider leaving a copy of your family history research with the Timespan genealogy group to help others in their research.